

Welcome to the 39th Annual Meeting of the European Society of Paediatric Infectious Diseases (ESPID)!

Please note that the content presented in the exhibition booths is solely the responsibility of the exhibitors, and ESPID 2021 assumes no responsibility or liability for it.

Advertising of prescription-only medicines to non-prescribing healthcare professionals is strictly prohibited. When visiting the virtual exhibition, all participants must identify themselves as either prescribing or non-prescribing healthcare professional. Non-prescribing professionals are prohibited from viewing, sharing or downloading any 'for medical prescriber' content that is displayed at the exhibition.

Please note that healthcare professional authorised to prescribe prescription medicines will be recognized with a letter P(Prescriber) indicated after their names, and exhibitors (booth admins) will be recognized with a letter E (Exhibitor).

Please be aware that indication of your online presence will be visible to others in chat rooms or virtual exhibition booths with which you engage. If you choose to partake in an industry-sponsored educational activity or click on industry banners, the sponsor/s will also be receiving your delegate badge information, consisting of your name and country or company.

The information being made available to you is intended for your personal use only. You may not record, copy, modify, publish, distribute or create derivative works based on or otherwise share this information (either in whole or in part) unless you have been specifically authorized to do so, in a separate written agreement.

It is recommended that all delegates use headphones and the information available on the screen of your device must not be accessible by the general public.

Upon entering this virtual event, you agree to the terms listed above and acknowledge that the information about yourself that you have shared with the organisers is accurate.

We are honored to have you with us at to ESPID 2021 Online Meeting!
